Mr. Follen

Sir - but I cannot - do anything to compensate you for the loss you met with in not hearing the whole of my husband's course of lectures on Pantheism - no lecture was written he left only notes, which I ^{shall} leave just as they are in the hope that if his son someday he may be able to estimate their value.

I make use of them.

With much respect

Eliza L. Follen
